David,

Rankings, a new feature designed to identify the SumZero members that most consistently beat the market with their research, is now live. The Rankings feature brings well-deserved recognition to the top alpha generators in the community using a methodology that is agnostic to pedigree, AUM, or past experience.

The SumZero Rankings feature is built upon the risk-adjusted relative returns of members' recommendations. Rankings are fully open to all members, and the following Rankings categories are available to view immediately:

- Best All-Time
- Best Last Twelve Months (LTM)
- Best Long-Only
- Best Short-Only

In subsequent months, we will unveil an expanding list of Rankings categories including those delineated by Sectors, Regions, Catalysts, Investment Styles, and more. Data on each list is refreshed once per month. Dive into the Rankings data and the methodology below:
